

A) the organization of long-distance trail races in Greece with the participation of Greek and foreign athletes. These races would have a direct connection with the promotion and/or the revival of ancient races and/or to distinguish the ancient monuments along the selected area of the race.

B) The spread and development of long-distance trail running in Greece and abroad through the ancient Olympic spirit.

C) The international promotion of Greece and particularly of the specific Municipalities, Communities and areas the long-distance race is going through.